"Dining With Ron"
 By RON BURPO

This land of ours is rich because of the living things that live in its waters, yet, the average housewife has never cooked more than three or four varieties of fish. Fish, like other foods, have their seasons. These seasons are based on when the supply is at its greater or the flavor and quality are at their best.

Now, however, because of modern freezing methods, most fish are available year round, and, because of modern transportation, we are able to enjoy fresh varieties from other locales. For instance, fresh lobsters are shipped all over the country from Maine and fresh King salmon from the Northwest can be enjoyed in the Midwest almost as readily as it can be eaten in Seattle. Experiment a bit with cooking methods that are new to you and a complete new eating experience will be yours in your search for new fish recipes.

Speaking of fish, have you had the pleasure of eating a truly delicious fish dinner at WOODY'S FISKEHUS.

Yes something new has been added to WOODY'S SMORGAS-BURGER, new to us that is, fish has been a very popular meal as far back in time as one could possibly go. We at WOODY'S are very proud to be able to offer a speciality house such as the FISKEHUS with its Swedish modern atmosphere and informal dining that all of our customers have liked so well. Give yourself a treat make it a point to stop in at WOODY'S FISKEHUS the very first chance you get. Located at 2713 S. Figueroa, Phone RI 7-7021.

Artist' Co-op to Show Works from New York

An exhibit of New York's Third Ave. artists will open at the Artists' Co-op Gallery, 121 S. Pacific Ave., Redondo, April 24.

This first exchange show between the Phoenix Gallery, New York, and the Artists' Co-op Gallery has been arranged to give the art-interested public an opportunity to acquaint itself with the techniques and direction of the East's young painters.

The Artists' Co-op and the Phoenix each have 24 member-owners who are professional artists, dedicated to producing serious fine art within the reach of the young collector.

The gallery is closed Mondays, open Tuesday through Friday from 1 to 4 and 6 to 9 p.m. and Saturday and Sunday from 1 to 9 p.m.

Avalon Prepares for Resumption of Daily Boat Trips to Island

Avalon town is up to its high tide in preparations to open its season as well as resumption of daily steamship service by the SS Catalina.

The Catalina, redecorated with emphasis on more comforts and services for the voyage, will make its 1960 maiden run Friday, April 29, at 9:45 a.m. from Wilmington.

On the Island a gang of pirates led by Bob Ellis of the Catalina have concocted a week long program which includes treasure hunts (with money and valuable prizes at stake), gags, and the big Buccaneer Ball at the Casino, which overlooks Avalon Bay.

Mayor Roy E. Taylor of Avalon, in his role as head pirate for the festivities, declared that among the many prizes that will be hidden for the treasure hunt will be a certificate of ownership for a new boat.

Avalon will remain a pirate harbor for the entire week with daily and nightly programs scheduled for the town and Casino.

Yacht clubs of Southern California have started rallying for a mass cruise to Catalina during the two fun-loaded weekends.
